2.0 Applicants may see their status of application in the website www.nfr.railnet.gov.in.

3.0 Call letters to the eligible candidates have been/ are being sent. In case the call letters are not received before the exam, the same may be downloaded (along with the instructions to the candidates) from the N.F. Railway website www.nfr.railnet.gov.in (Gr.D recruitment through RRC → E.N.No.02/2013) 10 days before the respective exam dates. The downloaded call letter will be valid only if a recent (not more than three months old) colour photograph without sunglasses is pasted in the earmarked space. In case the original call letter is received by the candidate before the date of exam, he/she must return one of the call letters to the invigilator during the exam. It is reiterated hereby that candidates debarred by any of the RRB/RRC for whatever reason, need not appear in the written exam, even if call letters have been issued in their names.

4.0 IMPORTANT

i) Recruitment to Railway service is done purely on merit basis through a systematic, fair, transparent and objective manner. The general public are hereby forewarned of not being tempted by way of irregular offers of appointments in lieu of monetary considerations by unscrupulous elements. Candidates using unfair means in the examination will be summarily disqualified even after appointment.

ii) Mobile phones are banned inside the examination centre. Candidates will be frisked at the Gate of the centre. Any candidate found with mobile phone in the centre will be disqualified. Therefore, the candidates are advised, in their own interest, not to carry mobile phones and bags to the exam centres. Neither the Centres nor the Railway Administration will be responsible for safety of the bags or other belongings.
